As a Church of England Academy, we are inclusive of all regardless of creed, colour, race, gender, sexual orientation or ability. We hope to transform the lives of our pupils, students and our wider community by putting our core values of love, integrity, generosity, hope and tolerance (LIGHT) into action. As such, all should feel welcome and respected. Schools are, in part, measured by academic success. Pupils and students know this. We must help and enable each pupil and student to succeed to the best of their ability by providing high quality lessons and an appropriate curriculum for our pupils and students.

Introduction

1. The John Wallis Church of England Academy is committed to protecting the privacy and security of personal information. This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about pupils, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), section 537A of the Education Act 1996 and section 83 of the Children Act 1989.

Who Collects This Information

2. The Academy is a “data controller.” This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about pupils and parents.

The Categories of Pupil Information That We Collect, Process, Hold and Share

3. We may collect, store and use the following categories of personal information about you:

The Lawful Basis On Which We Use This Information

8. We will only use your information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your information in the following circumstances: -
 - a. Consent: the individual has given clear consent to process their personal data for a specific purpose;
 - b. Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract with the individual;
 - c. Legal obligation: the processing is necessary to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations);
 - d. Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect someone's life.
 - e. Public task: the processing is necessary to perform a task in the public interest or for official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law; and
 - f. The Education Act 1996: for Departmental Censuses 3 times a year. More information can be found at: <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.
9. We need all the categories of information in the list above primarily to allow us to comply with legal obligations. Please note that we may process information without knowledge or consent, where this is required or permitted by law.

Sharing Data

10. We may need to share your data with third parties where it is necessary. There are strict controls on who can see your information. We will not share your data if you have advised us that you do not want it shared unless it's the only way we can make sure you stay safe and healthy or we are legally required to do so.
11. We share pupil/student information with:
 - a. the Department for Education (DfE) - on a statutory basis under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013;
 - b. Ofsted;
 - c. Youth support services – under section 507B of the Education Act 1996, to enable them to provide information regarding training and careers as part of the education or training of 13-19 year olds;
 - d. Other Schools that pupils/students have attended/will attend;
 - e. NHS;
 - f. Welfare services (such as social services);
 - g. Law enforcement officials such as police, HMRC;

Why We Share This Information

13. We do not share information about our pupils/students with anyone without consent unless otherwise required by law.
14. For example, we share pupils'/students' data with the DfE on a statutory basis which underpins school funding and educational attainment. To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the DfE please go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Storing Pupil Data

15. The Academy keep information about pupils/students on computer systems and sometimes on paper.
16. Except as required by law, the Academy only retains information about pupils/students for as long as necessary in accordance with timeframes imposed by law and our internal policy.
17. Full details on how long we keep personal data for is set out in our Data Retention policy.

Automated Decision Making

18. Automated decision making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision making in limited circumstances.
19. Pupils/students will not be subject to automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

Security

20. We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information (i.e. against it being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way). This includes relevant data protection and information security policies which are available on the Academy website.

Youth support services

Students aged 13+

21. Once our students reach the age of 13, we also pass student information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.
22. We must provide the students name, the parents name(s) and any further information relevant to the support services role.
23. This enables them to provide services as follows:
 - a. youth support services
 - b. careers advisers
24. A parent or guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / student once he/she reaches the age 16.

Students aged 16+

25. We will also share certain information about students aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.
26. This enables them to provide services as follows:
 - a. post-16 education and training providers
 - b. youth support services
 - c. careers advisers
27. For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

The National Pupil Database

28. The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils/students in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.
29. We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils/students to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

30. To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.
31. The department may share information about our pupils/students from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:
 - a. conducting research or analysis
 - b. producing statistics
 - c. providing information, advice or guidance
32. The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:
 - a. who is requesting the data
 - b. the purpose for which it is required
 - c. the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
 - d. the arrangements in place to store and handle the data
33. To be granted access to pupil/student information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
34. For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>
35. For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-requests-received>
36. To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

Requesting Access To Your Personal Data

37. Under data protection legislation, parents, pupils and students have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's education record, contact our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@thejohnwallisacademy.org.
38. You also have the right to:
 - a. Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress;
 - b. Prevent processing for the purposes of direct marketing;
 - c. Object to decisions being taken by automated means;
 - d. In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
 - e. Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations.
39. If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact Mrs Xanthia Ash, Director of Finance and Operations, in writing.
40. We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

Right To Withdraw Consent

41. In circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@thejohnwallisacademy.org.
42. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

Contact

43. If you would like to discuss anything within this privacy notice or have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with Mrs Ash in the first instance.
44. We have appointed a data protection officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with data protection and this privacy notice. If you have any questions about how we handle your personal information which cannot be resolved by Mrs Ash, then you can contact the DPO on the details below: -
